Welcome to international student support

The International Student Experience Unit (ISEU) at UNSW Sydney is the first point of contact for new arriving international students. We are always here to help with personalised advice and information about all aspects of university life, student visa, wellbeing, academic performance or if you need help but don’t know where to go.

Information for

- New arriving students
- Students under 18
- Australia Awards Recipients
- Research students
- Graduating students

Are you a new student?
Here you can find support for new arriving students and everything you need to know about planning your arrival, living in Sydney and settling in to student life at UNSW.

More info

Your student visa

Here you can find information about your student visa conditions and visa extensions.

More info

Supporting your studies

Find out how to reduce your study load, achieve academic success and make the most of our support.

More info

Development programs

Make the most of your time and student life at UNSW by joining our student development programs.

More info
Contact us

Contact our office for general enquiries or make an appointment with our student advisors.

More info

UNSW International Student Development