The following pages provide information on how you can meet new friends and get involved with your community.

Clubs and societies

With 200 clubs to choose from, joining a club is a great way to meet people who share your interests and make new friends.

Volunteering

Here you can find opportunities to volunteer with UNSW or with an external not-for-profit organisation.

Religious groups

Religious group include: Anglican, Buddhist, Catholic, Coptic Orthodox, Greek Orthodox, Islamic, Jewish, Pentecostal, Presbyterian and Uniting Church.

ALLY network for LGBTQI
Support networks for lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, transgender, queer and intersex students.

Publications

Here you can find blogs, magazines and social media for students. You can also develop your writing and communication skills by volunteering on student publications.

Competitions

There are a number of exciting competitions happening around UNSW, which give you the opportunity to test your abilities in a particular field, usually whilst working in a team of students on a project.

Facebook

Join our UNSW Students Facebook page or see more facebook pages for students.