Daylight saving time

From 2am on Sunday 1 October 2017 your clocks need to be put forward 1 hour for Daylight Saving Time which begins each year on the first Sunday in October.

Public holiday

Monday 2 October 2017 is a public holiday celebrating Labour Day.

On this day key services at UNSW such as Student Central and IT support will not be available while other other services such as the Library will have reduced open hours.

Campus Security are always available 24/7 even on public holidays.

See also

Academic calendar

Key dates