Careers and Employment is committed to helping you enhance your global employability, and empowering you to succeed beyond the classroom and find employment, throughout and after university.

The resources below are particularly useful for international students and should be used in combination with career development seminars, career advice appointments, and all the other Career and Employment resources available publicly and by logging in to UNSW Careers Online.

New to Australia

- International Student Employability Guide
- UNSW Essentials Online Module: Maximise Your Career Outcomes
- Job Board for UNSW Students
- Student visa holder work rights
- Job Search Strategies for International Students
- Starting a New Job Checklist
- Australia Pay Calculator
- Improving Your English Skills
- Working Safely in Australia

Career focused development programs

- UNSW Professional Development Program
- UNSW Career Leaders Program
- DIPP1112: 6 UoC Undergraduate Course
- Interchange
- Additional Development Programs

International student events

- UNSW International Student Careers Week
- Additional Events and Seminars

Returning to your home country

If you are considering looking for work in your home country, start planning early and make an appointment with a careers consultant to discuss specific strategies and resources.

The following job websites can also be helpful for returning students:

- China: chinaportal.guccu.org/unsw and aozhouhaigui.com
- Malaysia: www.graduan.com
- Singapore: gradsingapore.com
- Other Countries: (Sign in via UNSW Careers Online to access full information). http://online.goingglobal.com/default.aspx
See also

- UNSW Careers and Employment
- Study NSW - working while studying
- Useful career links

UNSW Careers and Employment