Happy Holidays!

UNSW will shut down operations over the Christmas and New Year period.

The shut down will start from the close of business on Tuesday, 19 December 2017.

The University will re-open on Tuesday, 2 January 2018.

During the shutdown key services such as Student Central, Library, IT support and Estate Management will not be available or will operate with reduced availability.

See also

- Academic calendar
- Key dates
- Summer term
- Staff information on shutdown period and holidays