Happy Holidays!

UNSW will shut down operations over the Christmas and New Year period.

The shut down will start from the close of business on Wednesday, 19 December 2018.

The University will re-open on Wednesday, 2 January 2019.

During the shutdown key services such as the Enrolment Support Centre, The Nucleus: Student Hub, Library, IT support and Estate Management may operate with reduced availability, different operating hours or may not be available.

Dates for the 2019-2020 shutdown period will be confirmed in December 2019.

See also

- Academic calendar
- Key dates
- Summer term
- Staff information on shutdown period and holidays