$2.5 million funding for New Colombo Plan projects

Published: 4 September 2017

Close to 800 students will have the opportunity to visit the Indo-Pacific region in 2018 thanks to $2.5 million from the Australian government’s (NCP) New Colombo Plan Mobility program.

The NCP is an initiative of the Australian Government that aims to enhance knowledge of the Indo-Pacific among young Australians. The grants will help UNSW students travel and study in 15 countries including Nepal, Palau, India, China and Korea.

Read the full article about the funding on the Newsroom website or for your chance to take part in an NCP funded opportunities, check out the opportunities available in our Global Education Notices or email Advisor4globaled@unsw.edu.au