Who can join this Peer Mentoring Program?

GSA’s FINE Peer Mentoring Program is designed for all new postgraduate students enrolled in the UNSW Business School.

Program description

Pursuing a postgraduate degree can be an overwhelming experience. GSA’s FINE Peer Mentoring Program helps new students - local and international - build Friendships, share Information, expand their Network and feel Empowered to create their own future!

The program matches current and successful postgraduate students (Mentors) with the new postgraduate students (Mentees) in the UNSW Business School. The program consists of One-to-One meet ups and group meetings in addition to online correspondence.

Peer mentoring is a relationship building journey. There are many positive benefits to both the Mentors and Mentees. Some of the benefits associated with participating in the program are the opportunity to:

- develop self-awareness and enrich personal development;
- improve communication and interpersonal skills;
- build lifelong friendships;
- attend professional mentoring where we include some professional skills workshop for mentor and mentees to participate in;
make your transition to UNSW one of ease and joy; and build your network!
