UNSW is pleased to announce the Medibank International Conference and Fieldwork Grants (MICFG) for international students undertaking a Postgraduate Research program are open for Semester 1, 2018.

Grants of $2,000 are available in Semester 1, 2018 for students with an international component to their research or conference presentation.

Grants are for the sole purpose of:

- Domestic conference travel to present a paper (including New Zealand)
- International fieldwork; or
- Domestic fieldwork with an international focus

Grants are NOT for international conference travel.

Students must be enrolled in a research program at the time of travel and comply with the eligibility criteria of the Medibank International Conference and Fieldwork Grant.

Eligibility

To be considered for the grant, applicants must:

- Be an international student undertaking a Masters by Research or PhD and enrolled in a research program at the time of travel
- Use the grant for upcoming Domestic Conference travel to present a paper; International or Domestic Fieldwork only
- Have an international component to their research or a collaboration
- Have the support of their Supervisor
- Be of good academic standing and on track for on-time completion
- Not have been a recipient of the MICFG in prior rounds
- Be a Medibank OSHC member (include membership number in application)

Note: International students who have received a PRSS are also eligible for the MICFG.

How to Apply

- Submit an application and supporting documents to international.student@unsw.edu.au. Include ‘MICFG application’ and your name in the subject line of your email.
- Applications are currently OPEN and will be assessed on a first-come basis
- MICFG Application Form