Be part of the latest HIV Neurology Research at St Vincent's Hospital, Sydney, that is a UNSW affiliated research hospital. People living without HIV are needed as volunteers to serve as healthy controls for a study on cognitive functions.

Volunteers will complete 2 visits two years apart. Each visit will involve assessments of memory and other thinking skills (90min).

Your time is reimbursed $50.

When

3 August - 31 December 2017, 9am-5pm

Where

St. Vincent's Public Hospital

Inquiries

Thomas Gates: (02) 83824989 or thomas.gates@svha.org.au