Are you keen to take part in study overseas?

Studying overseas is an exciting opportunity that you will want to make the most of. Come along to this advising session to find out what opportunities abroad are available for you in the USA, when it is best to go abroad and what exciting exchange partners you can visit as a part of your program.