UNSW welcomes all visitors to the campus! The accessibility ambassadors are student volunteers that help keep the campus inclusive, and assist everyone on campus to experience and participate in events fully. If you are unsure what to expect when you are on campus, the student Accessibility Ambassadors are always here to help.

Who is this for?

- People with a disability (permanent or temporary)
- People with walking difficulty, vision impairment, etc.
- People with anxiety or other conditions who may need companionship
- An Elderly person
- A condition that results in disturbed behavior that is imputed to the person (due to the set up of the environment)

How you will be supported?

Student Ambassadors will:

- Be present at Key Events (Upcoming: Info Day 2017) to assist all visitors
- Provide information on Accessibility
- Physical navigation on campus
- Provide Campus Tours
- Direct you to appropriate facilities or services (e.g. UNSW Disability Service Unit, Securities, Campus Facilities, etc.)
- Create personal plan based on your semester timetable (book-in service)
- Provide companionship or shadowing
- A personal guide to participate in events
