Course aims to equip students with basic Chinese language skills and ideal for beginners with not prior knowledge or for those who had studied basic Chinese and would like to enhance their proficiency. The programme cover 2 parts: Chinese Language and Chinese Cultural Studies.

Description:

Part 1:
The course is specially designed for beginners with little or no knowledge on the Chinese Language. The course content is topic-based to enable students to master basic conversational skills for daily use. Students learn by cultivating basic reading and writing skills to accumulate their basic vocabulary. Through experiential learning approaches, students will be tasked to perform several assigned activities to enhance their learning and understanding of the language. At the end of the course, students will be able to understand and construct simple phrases, conduct basic conversations as well as write basic strokes, character components, and single-component characters. They can expect to learn up to 260 Chinese characters, 40 grammatical points, and 300 commonly-used sentences.

Part 2:
The Chinese cultural studies course aims to expose students to the unique aspects of Chinese culture in the Singaporean context. To better appreciate multicultural Singapore, students will also be introduced to the various cultures in the country, which includes the Malay and Indian communities. In addition to understanding the historical development of the Chinese diaspora in South East Asia, students’ appreciation of the Chinese culture in Singapore will be enhanced through experiential activities such as Chinese Ink Painting, Chinese Paper Cutting, and Traditional Chinese Medicine as well as field trips to selected places of significant Chinese cultural heritage.
