UNSW Skill Development Program – 189,000, 3150, 450 - that’s your university career in minutes, hours and days. Make every second count, have fun and gain skills employers love through a range of initiatives.

Volunteer with the UNSW Skill Development Program during 2018 Semester 1. Recruitment has opened! Learn about project and time management, meet new friends and use your skills and experiences to give back to the UNSW community!

These opportunities opens once per semester only! Apply Now!

https://goo.gl/forms/ypu7qytTGDsJHa9g2

1. Be part of the backbone of the Skills Development Program and work with staff members to oversee other teams by applying for the Program Support Team.

2. Be the driver of organising fundraising events across campus by applying for the Fundraising Team.

3. Be the ambassador that promotes cross-cultural diversity and sharing of things and connecting with UNSW students in Sydney by applying for the Global Citizen Team.

4. Be connected and engage with a community partner to work on short programs/run initiatives to better the UNSW community by applying for the Community Engagement Team.

5. Be a change maker and help students transition into university life by applying for the Transition Team.

6. Be the facilitator to engage students in improving their communication skills by applying for the Discussion Community Team.
For more information about the teams: https://student.unsw.edu.au/sdp

Time Commitment: Semester 1 2018 (March to July) - and to stay for up to a year if you enjoy it!

How to Apply
- Apply here

Teams/Roles available: All Teams are opened!

Application closes on 14/02/2018

Cannot volunteer this coming semester? Sign up here to receive future news on recruitment, subscribe here.