We are pleased to inform you that the application period for Leeds International Summer School (LISS) 2018 is now officially open! This is your chance to spend next summer studying abroad at the University of Leeds, in the top 10 universities in the UK, according to The Times and The Sunday Times Good University Guide 2018.

Leeds International Summer School (LISS) offers you the opportunity to immerse yourself in British culture as part of an exciting four-week programme. Taking advantage of the vibrant, student friendly city of Leeds, and the rich history, culture and natural beauty of the area, the summer school combines world-class tuition with local knowledge, academic-related field trips, and a wide variety of social activities. LISS will run from Saturday 30 June to Sunday 29 July 2018 and the all-inclusive programme fee is £3,145 which includes tuition, on campus accommodation, field trips, excursions (including a weekend in London), an extensive social programme and premium fitness centre membership. Exchange places are available for this program.

LISS offers a wide range of academic subjects such as business, engineering, history, music, creative writing, sport science, entrepreneurship, literature, digital photography, law and political science. You will study two academic modules and earn credit (20 University of Leeds credits = 6 US credits/10 ECTS) which you can transfer back to your home university degree.
There are a number of discounts and scholarships available, including an early discount if you submit your application by 10 April 2018; please visit our website for more details: www.leeds.ac.uk/summer

Apply

In order to apply, students must be nominated by the Global Education Advisor by 26 March 2018 and the deadline for nominated exchange students to apply is 10 April 2018.

Complete this UNSW Overseas Short Course Application Form and Transfer of Credit Form (by 26 March 2018). Also, complete the LISS application via the website by 10 April 2018. Apply as soon as possible as enrolment is limited and allocated on a first-come first-served basis. Applying early also means you are more likely to secure a place on your first choice of modules as popular subjects are likely to fill up quickly.

For more information see Applying for credit and funding for your overseas short course.

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see How to prepare for departure.
