The Enterprise and the Environment Summer School is designed, delivered and managed by the University of Oxford. The program intended for undergraduates, as well as recent graduates and young professionals passionate about leading environmental change in business, NGOs or the government sector. The Summer School combines world class faculty, cutting edge research and expert practitioners; they will explore topics with students such as environmental economics and policy, enterprise management, financial markets and investment to approach critical environmental challenges in the 21st century.

The course will include the following topics:

- The environment, financial markets and long term investments
- The latest in climate change science
- The economics of climate change and the environment
- 'Deep dives' into water and energy
- Stranded assets and sustainable finance
- Connecting environmental science and policy
- Investing for impact and sustainable development
- Ecosystem markets, biodiversity and conservation finance
- Field trip to Wytham Woods with Earthwatch

Application Deadline

Students should apply directly to the University/Program via their website. Applications will be assessed, and places awarded, on an ongoing basis. Courses are often over-subscribed so it is strongly recommended that you apply early to avoid missing out. Applications will be considered for their overall strength and individual merit.

If you wish to transfer credit for the program, you must first seek approval from your faculty for credit transfer through Cross-Institutional Enrolment. For more information see - Applying for credit and funding for your overseas short course.
Fees

A discounted early bird price of £2750 is available to all students who pay for the Summer School before 31 May 2018. After this date the standard fee of £3000 will be applied to students when securing their place. In either instance these fees include all teaching, social activities during the week, accommodation and several meals. The fees do not include the cost of travel to and from Oxford, visas, insurance or personal expenses. Social activities on weekends are optional but recommended.

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
