Want to be part of the International Student Development Discussion Group Team?

Published: 11 May 2018

UNSW is currently recruiting new Project Officers for Semester 2, 2018.

The International Student Development Discussion Groups assists international students who want to improve their English language speaking skills in a safe, friendly environment. Led by student volunteers who form the Discussion Group Team, these informal discussion groups give participants the opportunity to learn more about the Australian culture and make new friends.

The International Student Development Discussion Group is UNSW Advantage and AHEGS accredited.

Local students are encouraged to apply.

Applications close Monday 28 May 2018.
