Careers Seminar: Network for Success

22 Jun 2018 - 11:30am to 1:00pm

Find out why networking is important for university students, how to build your network, how to make a good impression and successful networking strategies.

Most people don't like to network yet it is the most powerful and under-utilised tool to succeed in your career! Find out why networking is important for university students, how to build your network, how to start a conversation and make a good impression. In this workshop, we will also discuss the key strategies of networking.

Register: Careers portal

https://student.unsw.edu.au/events/network