Studying at the University of Edinburgh Summer School is the perfect way to broaden your academic and cultural horizons at a world-leading institution. The innovative and inspiring courses have been designed to give you the chance to study unique and interesting subjects and benefit from the state-of-the-art facilities we have on offer.

The course themes give you the chance to develop your skills and knowledge, broaden your international experience, and capitalise on the city's inimitable opportunities. To find your perfect course, take a look at the Course A-Z or use the course search tool.

Edinburgh's immersive courses provide at least 18 hours of supported academic teaching time per week, along with the chance to take part in development and reflective sessions to make the most of your international experience. Along with a full induction and a graduation event for your course, you will have full access to the wide range of academic and support services that the University has to offer.

Academic credit is available to all students registered on credit bearing courses. The Summer School also offers non-credit bearing courses for those students who do not require credit. You can find information on whether a course is credit bearing or not and how many credits each course is worth on the individual course pages. Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
