The Australian Higher Education Graduate Statement (AHEGS) is a kind of secondary transcript issued to students when they graduate, and providing a snapshot of their graduate achievements. It aims to enhance graduate mobility and employability in the global marketplace.

Section 4 of the AHEGS contains a list of any co-curricular opportunities that have been recognised under the UNSW Advantage umbrella and completed by the graduand at any stage of their degree. Listed on the AHEGS is the name of the opportunity, the position held by the participant as well as short description of that position's responsibilities.
