Development Studies Immersion Program (DSIP) at Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta

($5,000 Mobility Grants Available) (Applications due 15 March 2018)

This program allows students to spend a semester gaining valuable first-hand experience working in the field of international development. Students undertake six weeks of Indonesian Language tuition (at beginners, intermediate or advanced level) followed by either a two-month supervised and assessed field placement in a Javanese village in partnership with Gadjah Mada University’s (UGM) Institute for Research and Community Services, or an internship placement working in community-based development organisation. More information is available here: http://www.acicis.edu.au/programs/semester/development-studies-immersion-dsip/

Eligibility

You may be eligible to receive a $5,000-$6,000 New Colombo Plan Mobility Grant. Click here to see if you meet the eligibility criteria.

There is no separate application for a New Colombo Plan Mobility Grant. All students are strongly encouraged to apply and will have their eligibility to receive a grant assessed as part of the application process.

Apply

You can apply online here: http://www.acicis.edu.au/apply-now/

If you wish to transfer credit for the program, you must first seek approval from your faculty for credit transfer through Cross-Institutional Enrolment. For more information see - Applying for credit and funding for your overseas short course.
Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
