2018 PNU Summer School provides international students with an enriching cultural and educational experience through participation Session A from 27 June to 25 July and Session B from 26 July to 14 August. Each program consists of academic courses covering diverse subjects and various cultural activities, including field trips. Students can choose one or both sessions according to their schedules, preferences and academic goals.

Session A offers five-week intensive courses on academic subjects, Korean language and also includes fun cultural activities. Session A includes informing academic lectures which are three hours daily from Monday through Thursday and interesting cultural activities with a field trips on Friday. Each of academic lectures carry three credits, and participants can choose up to one of academic contents.

Session B is intended to teach Korean language to students who have no prior experience of learning Korean. Students will learn Korean consonants and vowels, and how to pronounce them. Through this class, students will gain the ability to read Korean, and speak basic expressions for daily situations, such as introducing oneself, asking time and place, finding directions, and others.

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
