Study in England’s bustling urban capital, London, with students from around the world at the internationally recognised University of Westminster. From Trafalgar Square to Notting Hill, and Big Ben to Buckingham Palace, this city has so much to see and do. You will quickly realise that London never sleeps!

You will get to:

Choose the length of your program – To really get to know London, depending on how the dates match up to your home university in Australia, you can study in England for 3 weeks (taking one course) or 6 weeks (taking two courses).

Learn about international business where the business gets done – from marketing to corporate social responsibility, take advantage of the many choices available.

Take media and design classes – Past students highly recommend television and radio production, journalism, writing, reporting, photography, and fashion. There are so many exciting options!

Study the politics and history of London – You can learn about the fascinating British culture through classes in historical and contemporary London culture, history, economics, literature, and politics, and then see all the sites you read about in your textbooks in person – learning both in and out of the classroom.

Take advantage of a perfect location – Your program will be in the heart of London, so you can really discover this energetic city, not to mention the ease of travel to the rest of the UK and Europe on the weekends!

CISaustralia will offer one lucky student a $750 travel scholarship for the July in London, England: 2018 program. All students who have applied for, been accepted into and paid a deposit for the July in London, England: 2018 program will automatically be entered into the draw.
