

Careers Seminar: Addressing Selection Criteria

Careers Seminar: Addressing Selection Criteria

15 Jun 2018 - 10:30am to 12:00pm

How to apply for jobs in the public sector, research and academia.

Preparing an excellent selection criteria document is the first step in securing a public sector, academic or research position. Employers will select applicants for interview based on how successfully their applications meet the advertised selection criteria.

In this seminar you will learn the basics of what to include in your application and find out the secrets to successfully addressing selection criteria. You will learn how to use keywords and examples to respond to the selection criteria as well as the "STAR" approach for responding to the criteria.
