'Shut Up and Write' Cafe Meet-ups for HDR Students

Join the UNSW Shut up and Write! Get that PhD moving!

Get writing! Start the year as you mean to end it – make writing a routine part of your life

When: Tuesdays 9.30 – 10.30

Where: Point Café, AGSM Building (Upper campus, just near Botany Street gate)

How it works: We come together for an hour every week. Every Tuesday someone from The Learning Centre will be there to make sure we do just that – stop talking – and start writing. Great coffee, great company and great productivity. You’ll be amazed at how much you can achieve in one hour: you can even build a habit for writing that will stand you in good stead for the rest of 2018 and beyond.
