The University of Auckland delivers a wide variety of UG/PG/Gen Ed courses in Summer School, which runs 6 weeks from early January to mid-February (7 January to 20 February in 2019).

All courses offered are taught and examined to the same standard as normal semester courses. Students can take one or two courses which are delivered intensively over the six weeks.

For courses offered in 2019, please visit our website https://www.auckland.ac.nz/en/students/academic-information/summer-school/summer-school-2019-course-list.html

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
