

2017-18 Budget student factsheets

Published: 12 December 2018

The Australian Government announced (in December 2017) it will not proceed with a number of the higher education reform proposals announced in the 2017-18 Budget.

However, it will pursue a number of other policy measures. The Government's new higher education measures will make Commonwealth support better targeted, make sure taxpayers receive value for money and help students make informed choices when it comes to study.
