It is important for students to attend all their Week 1 classes (lecturers and tutorials) or risk falling behind in your studies and struggling to catch up.

There's no mid-term break and the term is just 10-weeks long so it's easy to fall behind if you mistakenly think that Week 1 is just 'a waste of time'.

Watch this video below for you to better plan and better prepare for your new journey in the university life.

To find out more enter the Ready Set Go competition:

Enter competition here