If marks are awarded for correct referencing in your course, then you will want to participate in this workshop which will explore how to incorporate correct referencing conventions into all your written tasks. Come along and participate in activities that will sharpen your appreciation of the basic components of citation.

You will gain most benefit from this workshop if you bring along some of the texts (readings, journal articles etc) that you are currently using. Please make sure you know which style/s you will be required to use this semester in your courses.

Date: Monday 18 March 2019
Time: 1pm - 2.30pm
For: Undergraduates and Postgraduates
Venue: Library Seminar Room 208
Registration is essential via our workshop booking system.
