Applications for the Australian Permanent Mission to the World Trade Organization internships in Geneva, Switzerland, are now open.

The Australian WTO Mission represents Australia in the WTO to promote Australia’s trade and investment interests, and to support the rules-based multilateral trading system, and they are offering students the opportunity to undertake a voluntary internship on a self-funded basis. Under the guidance of experienced officers from the WTO Mission, interns will support and advance Australia’s interests in the WTO, WIPO and UNCTAD.

Interns will have the opportunity to attend formal and informal meetings and contribute to reporting on those meetings, undertake research and analysis on various issues, and carry out a range of other tasks. Interns will develop networks with other interns and diplomats, learn first-hand about Australia’s diplomatic activity and gain a useful understanding of diplomatic protocol.

Apply

Students should apply directly to the University/Program via their website by 9am Monday 18 March 2019

If you wish to transfer credit for the program, you must first seek approval from your faculty for credit transfer through Cross-Institutional Enrolment.

For more information see - Applying for credit and funding for your overseas short course

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
