Ochanomizu University is running two intensive Summer courses from 27 July to 9 August 2019 to give students the opportunity to learn Japanese and study Japanese culture and society.

There are a number of exchange places available.

Travel and living costs must be paid by students. Students can apply for accommodation at Ochanomizu University's dormitory rooms.

Course 1: Japanese Language Course

This course is divided into introductory and pre-intermediate classes, and will be taught in Japanese.

Introductory classes: These classes are for beginners who have no prior experience of studying Japanese, and students are expected to have reviewed the Hiragana and Katakana alphabets in preparation for this class.

Pre-intermediate classes: These classes are for students who have finished studying JLPT N4 / CEFR A2, B1 or equivalent.

Both classes have an excursion that contributes to the students' final presentation.

Course 2: Culture and Society Course

This course is divided into three areas of interest, or sub-courses, and will be taught in English.

Sub-course 1: Gender Equality and Leadership
Sub-course 2: Life Style in Japan
Sub-course 3: Evolution in Natural Science: From Being to Becoming (university-level knowledge of natural sciences is a pre-requisite)

Each course has 90 minutes x 12 classes, a field study, and a workshop.

To receive credit students are required to attend more than 75% of their classes and to submit a final report. This final report will be completed in groups and has associated fieldwork.
