What world will you live in by 2030?

Don’t miss this year’s Social Good Summit Australia, finding out how we can all change our world together.

Here’s the chance for you to be a part of this year’s exciting summit by entering our student competition.

The Social Good Summit is an annual conference streamed globally. It is focused on raising awareness of the UN’s 17 Sustainable Development Goals and their potential to fulfil the promise of creating a better world by 2030. A dynamic group of corporations, non-profits, government, universities, industry bodies, social enterprises and grassroots organisers are all brought together on this day to openly discuss ideas, share stories and inspire others to actively make the world a better place.

Taking place on Saturday August 10 from 9am to 5pm at NIDA Parade Theatre, Kensington. Want to be part of the action?
Competition Details

Create and upload a video or story, tagging @socialgoodau on Facebook/Instagram by August 1 2019.

You can choose from the two topics below:
