This page details what you need to do and know after the graduation ceremony.

Return academic dress

Once you’ve graduated and had your photograph taken, return your academic dress to the Arc Grad Shop in the Mathews Pavilion, following the signs to Gown Return.

Graduation services
On the Graduation services page, you'll find details about the following services that are offered after the graduation ceremony:

- Photography
- Degree framing
- Ceremony DVD
- Plaque
- UNSW merchandise

You can order some of these services in advance, or purchase them on the day.

Beyond graduation

The Information for graduates page details some of the support available to you from UNSW after you graduate and the documentation you may need:

- Replacement documents
- Careers services
- Alumni services
- Lifelong email account
- Further learning opportunities
