Improve your English and meet new friends

"To provide a comfortable environment where international students participate in discussions to improve their English and share their cultural experiences, make friends and be more socially active." - Discussion Group Team Mission Statement

Discussion groups are for international students who want to improve their English language speaking skills in a safe, friendly environment. Led by student volunteers who form the Discussion Group Team, these informal discussion groups also give you the opportunity to learn more about the Australian culture and make new friends.

There a variety of topics discussed including news, popular culture, Australian slang and others from participants suggestions. The focus is on learning more about Australia whilst gradually improving communication skills, especially public speaking. These groups are informal and fun, so expect to play trivia, games of 'Taboo' and more!

Session times

Sessons run for an hour every day during semester from Monday to Friday inclusive. Below are the session times and locations for Semester 1, 2018.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday: 4pm - 5pm, The HUB (Student Development) Meeting Room 2

DG & Chill

Every 3 weeks DG goes to dinner, taking the experience outside the university and into a buzzing Sydney area. DG’s team members share their favourite Sydney restaurants that otherwise would remain unknown to new international students. In 2016 Discussion Group went to Bar Luca, Seoul Ria (Korean BBQ) and Hurricanes Grill & Bar. Afterwards, the group socialises whilst exploring local hot-spots around Sydney. In this way, DG hopes to help international students wholeheartedly claim Sydney as their new home.

Become a discussion group facilitator

Are you interested in becoming a Discussion Group Team Volunteer? The International Student Development Discussion Group is UNSW Advantage and AHEGS accredited.

Applications are currently closed, however we will be recruiting new volunteers towards the end of Semester 2.
