A new(ish) course, CDEV3000 – Practice of Work, gives you the opportunity to work on real-world projects with an industry and community partner, while also earning 6 units of credit towards your degree!

About CDEV3000 – Practice of Work

- Earn 6 units of credit (UOC)
- General Education and free-elective course
- Open to undergraduate students
- Just a 3-hour online commitment per week in T2 (Tuesday, 9am to 12pm)
- Completely online through Moodle Collaborate
- Work in a team with students from other faculties on a real-world project set by our partners.

Benefits of CDEV3000

- Network with people working in industry
- Develop online work skills required for the current and post-COVID-19 global workplace
- Improve your presentation skills
- Improve your teamwork skills
- Improve your problem-solving skills
- Have fun!

Criteria

The only criteria for this project is that you are an undergraduate who has completed at least 30 units of credit prior to applying.

Get in quick!

The IDPP is a very competitive program and spaces are limited. We encourage students to apply as soon as possible after the opening date for each intake.

Partners and Projects for Term 2, 2020

We are excited to announce that our partners are The Australian Museum, NTT, and GML Heritage.

The three opportunities are:

Project 1 - Exploring effective climate change outreach for young adults in NSW (The Australian Museum)
Project 2 - Using data analytics to assess and measure business performance (NTT)

Project 3 - Economics of heritage: the contribution of heritage items and areas to the economy (GML Heritage)

Deadline EXTENDED to 17 May 2020!

Apply now