Lancaster’s Global Summer Schools are accepting applications for their 2020 programme. As part of their Global Summer School programme you will spend time connecting with students from around the world, developing key global competencies, and undertaking field trips and social activities.

The Summer Schools that are running are as follows:

- Leadership and Sustainability Innovation
- International Cultural Experience
- Science of the Environment
- Exploring the Law
- International Commercial Law
- Culture, Literature and Society in England (1800-present)

Requirements:
• Need to be in good academic standing and on track to pass year 1 of studies
• Be at least 18 years old at the start of the programme
• Where applicable, meet pre-requisites for chosen programme - this currently only applies for Science of the Environment.

Each of these are running at different times from June to September. Please refer to each Summer School for further information.

Fees

These vary from approximately £1,200 to £1,800 (excluding the catered accommodation fee). Please refer here for more specific information for each Summer School.

Funding

You may be eligible to apply for the following funding options for your overseas study:

• OS-HELP

Apply

Students should apply directly to these Programs via their website by 22 April 2020.

If you wish to transfer credit for the program, you must first seek approval from your faculty for credit transfer through Cross-Institutional Enrolment. For more information see - Applying for credit and funding for your overseas short course.

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
