Make sure to join students from more than 60 countries around the world and take part in TU Berlin Summer University’s unique, hands-on academic program, by applying now for discounted early bird fees!

Their courses are taught in English across a number of terms. You can study in any or all terms, and study one course per term. Alongside course work you will also be able to enjoy Berlin’s most famous sites and museums, and experience the local culture first-hand through the historical, social and sporting activities that will be available.

Programme dates for 2020 are as follows:

- Term 1: 8 June 2020 - 3 July 2020
- Term 2: 6 July 2020 - 17 July 2020
- Term 3: 20 July 2020 - 14 August 2020
- Term 4: 17 August 2020 - 28 August 2020
Costs

- Registration fee: €60
- Tuition: €610 - €2300
- Accommodation: from €35.90 per night if organised through TU Berlin's Summer Programme

The registration fee covers administration and registration costs, and the tuition fee covers both tuition and learning materials for a course, as well as activities running as part of the cultural program.

Eligibility

Each course has their own pre-requisites, please refer to the course descriptions. These can be accessed using the links above.

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure
All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
