For all international students that are either on or offshore and have applied to take Program Leave for Term 1, 2020 - UNSW will not cancel your COE. Keeping your COE active means that you can either stay in Australia or return once the travel ban has been lifted, without any impact on your student visa.

Before travelling to Australia, UNSW always recommends you check VEVO.

Read more