NOTE: Approval to participate in this program is dependant on changes to the current travel restrictions and confirmation that it is safe for UNSW students to travel to the region.

Study in Indonesia for a summer abroad.

$3,000 New Colombo Plan mobility grants are available to undergraduate UNSW Sydney students wishing to study in Indonesia in January/February 2021.

ACICIS is an organisation that runs programs in Indonesia that you may be eligible to receive one of these grants for. A past ACICIS student commented that their experience was “Absolutely, without question, the best and undeniably most beneficial component of my entire degree”. You can read more past student experiences here.

Apply

Students should register their interest at http://unsw.aglobal.education/st-application by 17 June for the first round of applications and 18 August for the second round of applications.

If you wish to transfer credit for the program, you must first seek approval from your faculty for credit transfer through Cross-Institutional Enrolment. For more information see - Applying for credit and funding for your overseas short course.

Risk assessment

All programs involve some degree of risk to participants. If you choose to source a provider on your own, please remember to do some research on them first and ensure that they are a legitimate organisation and that the product they offer will definitely meet your requirements. Students are therefore advised to undertake their own risk assessment before departure and any participation in these programs is at their own risk.

Before departure

All students should register their travel with UNSW. You should also undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. For more information see - How to prepare for departure.
