Student peer support and groups

There is a number of ways you can connect to fellow UNSW students. Check out these great groups below:

- Student Minds - Student Minds® is the student voice on mental health: opening minds, creating understanding and connecting students with resources to thrive.

- Wellness Warriors - Wellness Warriors are student volunteers defending you from negative habits by equipping you with all the tools and resources you need to stay afloat.

- Cultural Mentors - Cultural Mentors provide valuable support and advice to commencing international students.

- Peer Mentors - Peer mentors help commencing students settle into university life.
