If you are studying at UNSW with a disability or difficult personal circumstance, then Equitable Learning Services may be able to help you. On this page, you will find office contact details and how to make an appointment.

ELS Service Provision

The Equitable Learning Service continues to be available to support students living with disabilities, long term medical conditions and / or mental health conditions and students with carer responsibilities to access educational supports.

Appointments will continue to be on offer as both telephone and video call appointments We are also returning to in-person appointments for students who are coming to campus.

For all appointment bookings, contact us at els@unsw.edu.au
