Please note, these rates are for study in 2020 only. If you continue in your current program or transfer to another program for 2021 you will be charged at the 2021 maximum student contribution rates. More information can be found here.

In addition to tuition fees, UNSW will charge you a Student Services & Amenities Fee.

How to calculate fees

Below is an example for a 6 uoc course in Band 1.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course units of credit</th>
<th>EFTSL in units of credit</th>
<th>student contribution band charge</th>
<th>Charge per course</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>48</td>
<td>$6,684</td>
<td>$835</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You can find the units of credit per course in the UNSW Handbook. The EFTSL at UNSW is currently always 48.

Am I eligible for Commonwealth support

Commonwealth supported places are competitive and are only available to domestic students.

Domestic undergraduate students who are offered a place through the University Admissions Centre (UAC) will be offered a Commonwealth supported place (CSP).

There are also postgraduate Commonwealth supported places. These places are limited and must be applied for, either directly to UNSW or through UAC. Please see our Postgraduate Commonwealth Support page for more details.

For more information on Commonwealth support eligibility, please refer to Commonwealth Assistance.
