About this program

A peer support program for new students with disabilities, long term health conditions or mental health conditions to get the most out of your UNSW experience! Sign up to the program today for fun, small group mentoring sessions as well as some larger group events to build your connections and UNSW knowledge. ActivateUNSW introduces you to fellow students and mentors in a safe and understanding environment for a fun and helpful experience to ease your transition into university life. The program is currently running online with the potential for on-campus meet ups if you would like to.

When does this program run?

Term 1, 2021
Week 1 to Week 8 of term.

New student (mentee) registrations

Activate UNSW is a safe and confidential space for any new student who has a disability, long term medical condition or mental health condition (you are not required to be registered with UNSW's services to join).

Registrations are now open for T1 2021 here, https://unsw.au1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_25XaZCW38De6s4Z

Mentor applications

We encourage applications from our diverse student cohort and will provide support for all accessibility needs. This program is AHEGS accredited.

Mentor applications for T1 2021 are now closed.

Please contact us to express interest in being a mentor in the future.
