Here you can find support for (LGBTIQ) Lesbian, Gay, Bi-sexual, Transgender, Intersex and Queer students and staff. UNSW recognises you can often experience social exclusion for a range of reasons that can have a profoundly negative impact on health, study and work achievements.

ALLY@UNSW Network

The ALLY@UNSW Network is a lighthouse program that aims to ensure UNSW is a safe, welcoming place for all students and staff who identify as LGBTIQ.

Contact an ALLY for support

If you would like to contact any of our ALLIES - they will be happy to hear from you and provide confidential referral advice.

What is the ALLY program?

The ALLY training program aims to make UNSW a great place for everybody by reducing barriers of fear and ignorance that lead to prejudice and discrimination.

What is the role of an ALLY?

The ALLY@UNSW network are trained staff and students that aims to ensure that UNSW is a safe - welcoming place for all students and staff who identify as LGBTIQ.
Register for ALLY training
All staff and students are welcome to undertake ALLY training.

More support

Gender affirmation and transition support
Support for intersex and transgender students who seek support before, during or affirming transition...

More support at UNSW
Support at UNSW Sydney...

Community support groups
Support outside UNSW...

Referral and health services
Services outside UNSW for referral and health...

Ally@unsw

More facebook pages