Highlights:

- Meet your peers from all over the world in a series of events geared towards cross cultural exchange and immersion through social connection
- The Sessions are all an initiative from the Office of International Programs at USFQ but it is student centered and each session will be led by local students

- Origins - September 11th - 12 pm, 8 pm GMT -5 (US CST Time)

  What are your origins? Join your peers to learn about each other's background! This session will be an opportunity to share a bit about your home through an interactive activity.

- Culinary Arts - September 25th - 12 pm, 8 pm GMT -5 (US CST Time)

  What are your local culinary traditions and what can they tell us about your culture? This session is sure to leave us all a bit hungry as we will be sharing international culinary traditions through multimedia as we continue to create an online international community.

- Gender & Equality - October 16th - 12 pm, 8 pm GMT -5 (US CST Time)

  What has been your experience with gender and equality? What does the LGBTQI+ community in your context look like? Discuss gender and equality across international borders, find connections, and take part in a dialogue led by local USFQ campus group: Dragones Queer.
