Global Remote Internship in January 2021

Published: 29 September 2020

Highlights

- Global Remote Internships are available for students who want to gain international experience without leaving home.
- Global Remote Internships provide students with the unique opportunity to gain practical 21st century skills, industry, connections, and international business experience through project-based learning in a remote setting in a wide variety of locations around the world.
- During the placement process, participants take part in an advising session to understand more about their goals. That information is conveyed to the placement team in order to match the student with an international host organization that aligns with their professional goals.
- In order to provide a structured program in which all participants are ensured a successful program, ISA has intentionally created a variety of check points and planned activities which keep the interns engaged. In addition to regular check ins with their site supervisor, each intern will also receive a weekly check in from ISA staff to confirm that the placement is proceeding as expected.
- Location: Various countries including Spain, Vietnam, China and others
- Academic Areas: Marketing, Communications, Business, International business, Finance, Software Engineering,
Computer Science, Data Science, Tourism, Fashion, Education, General Engineering, and Legal Studies
- 6 weeks in duration, 25 hours a week
- The program includes: intentional program structure, personal advising session, custom-matched internship placements, personal career coaching, professional development toolbox & skill survey assessment tool, workshops and support, ISA’s career readiness course, cross-cultural toolkit.
