Highlights

- The Center for Japanese Language Education at Kwansei Gakuin University (KGU) will offer an online version of the "Intensive Japanese Language and Culture Study Program" this winter.
- This is a three-week program, offering two different levels for Japanese language classes, elementary and intermediate.
- All sessions will be delivered in live stream interactive format and to maximize the opportunities for participants to communicate with native Japanese speakers, KGU school volunteers will participate as "Nihongo Partner" in classes and work together to accomplish tasks and projects.
- The program will not only focus on language studies. In addition to the regular language classes, students will also be able to participate in Japanese Culture study sessions.
- For more detailed information please refer to the brochure provided in the Attached documents section below.
