Welcome! How to Accept Offer and Get Started at UNSW Sydney Australia

How to get started at UNSW

Welcome to UNSW Sydney and congratulations on your offer of study, you have done well!

Please see below information for domestic or international students on how to accept your offer and get started:
Domestic students

Information for local students: Australian citizens, Australian permanent residents or New Zealand citizens.

International students

Information for international students on accepting your offer and getting started at UNSW Sydney, Australia.
International student information

Have you recently become a domestic student?

If you are a commencing student who holds an international student visa and you are granted Australian citizenship, Australian Permanent Residency (PR) or New Zealand citizenship, you need to notify UNSW within 7 days.

Find out more