Here you can find information for new and returning international students, about planning your arrival in Australia.

COVID-19
Information for students about the impact of COVID-19 on your study at UNSW.

Equitable Learning Services
How we can assist you with a health or mental health condition or disability.

Your rights in Australia
Australia has many protections in place for the rights of international students.

Accommodation
Information about student accommodation on campus and off campus.
Cost of living
Guide to weekly expenses comparing a shared house, living on your own, or living on campus.

Transport
Guide to getting to and from campus.

Overseas student health cover
Health insurance is needed before you apply for your Student Visa.

Water safety
Expert advice for international students on how to stay safe near water.