Are you feeling confused about starting your first assignment?

Academic Skills and the Library will introduce some key concepts about university assignments and practical tips for how to get started.

Join us for a workshop on understanding assignment questions, strategies for gathering your ideas and tips on searching for helpful references.